

Blackboard Site Development ENG105 and ENG106

For CSU Writing Center

Section A: Overview

- ENG 105 / ENG 106 are helper workshops for ENG 101 and ENG 102 respectively
- Workshops are in-class workshops for first 8 weeks of semester
- For ENG 101 and ENG 102 students who need extra writing help
- Try to complete workshops within first 10 weeks of semester

Section B: Rationale

- Weather
- Activities
- Accountability – Writing Center
- Accountability – Students
- Education Technology Practice
- Help MORE Students
- Practice Submitting Homework ON TIME!
- More Students can be helped

Section C: Proposed Results

- Build ENG 105 and ENG 106 into Blackboard Web-blended Workshops
- Students STILL attend in-class workshops
- Allows for students who are athletes to STILL submit homework on time
- Weather is NOT an issue for submitting homework on time

Section D: The Plan

- Observed Graduate Assistant teachers during workshops, asking questions of students and instructors
- Reviewed all documents, scanned documents, and converted documents into Word files for homework assignments
- Uploaded all files for first 4 weeks into respective folders on site

Section E: Actual Procedures

- Reviewed Other Blackboard Sites for design look and feel
- Practiced building the site to specifications
- Stepped away when technical issues arose to confirm correct design
- Stepped back and finished site

Section F: Project Results

- Blackboard Site for ENG 105's first 4 weeks built with content
- Sections of Blackboard Site:
 - Workshop Content
 - Assignments
 - Discussion
